

Part B – Exhibitions

B.1 – Exhibition

B.1.1 – National, International exhibition

Each full member of WCF or member under patronage registered with the WCF is entitled to organize national exhibitions (titles not higher than CAC/CAP) or international exhibitions (all titles) in its own country or in a country, where member-clubs of WCF do not exist.

B.1.2 – Shows in a country, where a member of WCF already exists

If a WCF-club wants to organize an exhibition in another country, where at least one member-club of the WCF already exists, this member-club has to agree or shall organize the exhibition together with the latter club.

B.1.3 – Joint-exhibitions (Combined exhibitions)

B.1.3.1 - Definition

WCF exhibitions, which are held together with another Non-WCF organization, or exhibitions, which are held by Non-WCF organizations on the same day in the same exhibition grounds, with separate or shared catalogues, and separate or joint exhibition posters, with separate or joint judges, and with separate or joint BIS, are joint-exhibitions (Joint shows).

WCF exhibitions that take place in the same exhibition ground, the same day or the same weekend, but which do not have joint advertisement, joint posters, joint catalogues or joint inscription forms, are not considered to be a Joint show.

B.1.3.2 - Permission

To organize a Joint-exhibition which do not belong to the World Cat Congress (WCC) or belong to one contract partner of the WCF, a WCF member must ask for permission from appointed (Extended) Board member at least 6 months prior to the date of exhibition. In case of positive permission a WCF member can ask for a new license (or to ask to change the already issued license) for the Joint exhibition.

For the exhibition with any association belonging to World Cat Congress (WCC) a special permission is not needed.

The procedure for licensing is the same as for a usual WCF exhibition

Joint shows with associations, which do not belong to the World Cat Congress (WCC) or belong to one contract partner of the WCF and invite the judges, who are under suspension or whose license has been revoked by WCF, are not allowed. Already issued licenses for joint shows lose their validity if the above occurs.

B.1.4 – Special permissions

Each WCF club (full members, clubs under patronage) can request one special permission in a year. Joint shows do not belong to it. A special permission requires the double licensing fee. The club may not have disciplinary proceedings.

There are no special permissions for deviations from the rules.

B.1.5 – One-day exhibition

All WCF-exhibitions are one-day exhibitions. They can be held for up to three consecutive days. In three-one-days exhibitions the number of judges according to B.1.7.3 is required for each day.

B.1.6 - Only one certificate per day

In all WCF-exhibitions each cat may be judged traditionally only once per day (exception B.1.7).
