

Part D – Judging in exhibitions of the WCF

D.1 – WCF has three types of judging in its exhibitions

D.1.1 – Traditional judging

Is permitted and mandatory in all countries, except in these countries, where tradition is different.

D.1.2 – WCF-Ring

Is permitted in all exhibitions, aside with traditional judging.

Owners shall indicate on the entry form of their cats, if their cats will participate in a WCF-Ring.

D.1.3 – Ring

This type of judging is permitted in Australia and New Zealand, it is only permitted in countries, where only this type of judging exists by tradition.

D.2 –The traditional judging

D.2.1 – Judging is open and anonymous.

The judgement in exhibitions is open and anonymous. Only the catalogue-number of the cat, breed, colour, date of birth, show class and sex are known by the judge. Each judge has to give a reason for his judgement on the judge's report.

D.2.2 – Open judgement

In principal judging shall be „open judging“, i.e. each judge is obliged to announce his judgements to the present people and to give the reasons for his judgement, if necessary.

D.2.3 – Judgement according to the rules and the standard

The judgement of cats in exhibitions of the WCF is performed according to the official standard and the rules of the WCF.

D.2.4 – Judging is indisputable

Judgement in exhibitions of the WCF is indisputable and is not subject of any comments. Discussions between exhibitors and judges concerning the judge's opinion are not permitted.

D.2.5 – Number of cats per judge

The number of cats to be judged traditionally will be limited to max. 40 cats per day. Cats that are to be judged for example in WCF Rings or Special shows) beyond this number are limited to 110 cats per day and to be charged additionally, only after consultation with the judge. Nevertheless, it is recommended not to present too many cats to a judge that Best in Show may start in time.

D.2.6 – Chronological judging according to the show classes

In each colour the cats are judged chronologically according to the show classes of the WCF (from the highest to the lowest class, or vice-versa). Catalogues are printed in the same order, if the club requests to do so.

D.2.7 – Four ranks per class

For all cats only one title may be awarded per breed, colour, class, sex and per day. 4 ranks may be awarded with Excellent or Very Good, for Good no ranks are awarded.

D.2.8 – Judge protocol, judge's report and exhibition certificate

D.2.8.1 – General

The organizing club is responsible that all judge-protocols and -reports are issued and are given to the judge in time. To be judged cats in the double judgement must be marked in the judge protocol.

The judge's report form includes the logo of the WCF, the names of the clubs, their logos, city and date of the exhibition and, if necessary, the note on the double judgement. The judge's form report is filled out by the organizing club that it includes the catalogue number, breed and colour, WCF EMS coded and written, show class, sex and date of birth. There may not be data mentioned concerning the names of breeder, owner or cat.

D.2.8.2 – Exhibition certificate

Each club is also obliged to hand over the exhibition certificate and, if applicable, the ring certificate / -participation certificate to the owner of the cat on the day of the exhibition, in addition to the judge's report.

The exhibition certificate must contain the following information:

The word "certificate", the WCF logo, the type of exhibition, the names of the organizing clubs, their logos, the location, the country and the date of the exhibition. Also all information of the cat analogous to the judge's report, the name of owner as well as the title won, Best in Variety, special prize, nomination and possibly placement in the Best in Show, Best of Best with date of the day.

The exhibition certificate may contain the following information:

Participation and/or placement in a WCF ring, one emblem / logo of an official sponsor of the exhibition, but not bigger than the WCF logo.

D.2.8.3 – WCF Ring certificate

Separate Ring certificates must be issued for the maximum first 10 placed cats. The winners must be specially marked. Participation certificates must be issued for all ring participants, if it is not noted on the exhibition certificate. They contain the word "Certificate" or "Participation certificate", the WCF logo, the type of exhibition, the names of the organizing clubs, their logos, the location, the country and the date of the exhibition day, the type of WCF Ring with placement, number of cats present in the ring, all information of the cat analogous to the judge's report and the name of the owner.

Note: If it is a split ring, it must be noted on the certificates.

D.3 – Working place of the judge

D.3.1 – Equipment of the working place

The judge is provided for his work with a working place free from visitors and exhibitors, with day light, which is equipped with a table and two chairs, disinfectant, paper towels, protocols and the judge's reports. Only the chief steward, a student judge and stewards or the owners bringing their cats are permitted to be present.

D.3.2 – Room

The rooms shall be selected in that way that exhibitors have free access to the judge's area without disturbing the judges in their work.

D.4 – Stewards

Stewards must be 16 years old and must be vaccinated against tetanus.

D.5 – Student judge

D.5.1 – Only one student per day

Each judge may have a student judge, if he agrees, but only one student per day.

D.5.2 – Presence in the Best in Show

The student may ask questions, if the judge permits so.

He must be present during nomination for Best in Show and during the Best in Show.
